

Multi-Cultural Policy

Australia is an increasingly multi-cultural society and as we recognise more cultural and ethnic diversity, it is imperative we lead children in recognising and respecting similarities and differences in cultures. The cultural beliefs signified within the Service and wider community helps to form the foundation of the program being implemented to ensure we are promoting an inclusive environment for all children.

National Quality Standards (NQS)

Quality Area 1: Educational program and practice
1.1	An Approved Learning Framework informs the development of a curriculum that enhances each child's learning and development.
1.1.1	Curriculum decision making contributes to each child's learning and development outcomes in relation to their identity, connection with community, wellbeing, and confidence as learners and effectiveness as communicators.
1.1.6	Each child's agency is promoted, enabling them to make choices and decisions and influence events and their world.
1.2	Educators and coordinators are focused, active and reflective in designing and delivering the program for each child.
